Here are some examples of what we How we can help Developing coping strategies Scoping support networks and emotions monaging reeings and emotions
Providing someone to talk to around Scoping support networks can offer: Our Jeans Our support is delivered by a highly Access to resources including a personalised online support platform. the impact of the crime LOW cost security nems including a Jur support is aenvered by a night trained team of caseworkers, Jur of all Multicrime Team support victims of all LOW COSE SECURITY HERMS thing thes judy ding duisocial Our Teams .3 dery planning other specialist agencies crime whes increamy onersocial Information provision Provided by Care Service is delivered The Victim Care Service is delivered Our Leading Lights accredited Our Leading Lights accreaned to Domestic Abuse Team Provide .Advocacy Support, risk assessments, safety Safety Planning Help to reintegrate back into support, risk assessments, safety Crime prevention advice planning and reassurance in a non-By the national charity, Victim by the national charity Victim strools and the community judgmental way. Our case workers agencies across Support, on benationer for Hampshire the greato provide the highest ure area to provide the individuals quality of support for individuals Our Children and Young People Team and the Isle of Wight. offer support for all crimes for those orrer support for all crimes for those aged A and upwards. This may be aged 4 and upwards, this may be directly with the child or delivered parents | guardians | trusted adults. The support is delivered in an engaging way using a huge range of engaging way using a huge range of the support is delivered in an with the support of activities and resources that is univines una resources moris especially adapted to each child. "One call from my caseworker wanted to help me. I felt listened and I felt people actually Wanted to help me, help for both me and my daughter - it was unbelie vable" Service User